

At 4:46 p.m. Tasha Smalls wrote to Barbara Stephenson and Justin Lesdy, with copies to Rebecca Wardlaw and Rob Perry: Attached please find a letter regarding the Labor Board Reconstitution meeting set March 10, 2011 at 9:00 a.m. Please contact Assistant City Attorney Rebecca Wardlaw at 768-4666 should you have any questions.”

[Letter from Rebecca Wardlaw to Justin Lesky and Barbara G. Stephenson with a copy to Rob Perry, re: Appointment of third Member to the City of Albuquerque Labor-Management Relations Board: Thank you for agreeing to meet with the city Attorney at 9:00 a.m. on March 10, 2011, regarding selecting a neutral third representative for the Labor Board so that you may begin hearing cases as soon as possible. ... We look forward to resolving this vacancy as soon as possible. Thank you.]

● On Thursday, March 10, 2011, at 2:24 pm Justin Lesky wrote to Diego Arecon, Ahren Griego, Joey Sigala, Shane Youtz, the AFSCME AOA Board, Steve Griego, Andrew Padilla, Deb Rainaldi, Lawrence Rodriguez, and Fred Mower stating that “The management representative and I have agreed to appoint George Bach as the neutral member to the City labor board. We’re working on getting a date for the first meeting and then notices of the meeting will be issued.”

● On Friday, March 11, 2011, at 8:28 a.m. Rebecca Wardlaw wrote “Barbara and Justin, I am hoping you can accelerate your efforts to contact the prospects. Yesterday, the City Clerk received a petition filed for recognition filed by NMTU. The NMTU-AFSCME efforts to be the bargaining unit for Transit absolutely require Labor Board action within the next few days.”